

Natural Gas Safety (Student)

Visit Kids - STUDENTS/Protect Your Noggin and scroll down to the Natural Gas Safety section. Watch the two videos on the right-hand side, then complete the following questions.

Draw a picture of something that uses natural gas

We CAN'T _____ natural gas.

We CAN'T _____ natural gas.

We CAN'T _____ natural gas.

But we can SMELL natural gas!
What does it smell like?

Where is natural gas located?

Why might someone want to dig in their yard?

What is the number you should call before digging?

- a.) 911
- b.) 211
- c.) 811

What do the colored flags in the ground indicate?

- a.) There are utility pipes and wires below
- b.) There is treasure below
- c.) That it is safe to dig there

If you smell gas (rotten eggs) what should you do?

- a.) Find out where it is coming from
- b.) Tell an adult and leave the area
- c.) Wait to see if it goes away

Natural Gas Safety (Parent Guide & Answer Key)

Visit <http://www.consumersenergy.com/kids/Student.aspx?id=597> | Protect Your Noggin and scroll down to the Natural Gas Safety section. Watch the two videos on the right-hand side, then complete the following questions.

Draw a picture of something that uses natural gas.

Suggestions: Stove, water heater, clothes dryer

We CAN'T touch natural gas.

We CAN'T taste natural gas.

We CAN'T see natural gas.

But we can SMELL natural gas!
What does it smell like?

Rotten Eggs

Where is natural gas located?

Underground in pipes or storage space

Why might someone want to dig in their yard?

Plant a tree, plant flowers, plant a garden, digging a basement for a house

What is the number you should call before digging?

- a.) 911
- b.) 211
- c.) 811

What do the colored flags in the ground indicate?

- a.) There are utility pipes and wires below
- b.) There is treasure below
- c.) That it is safe to dig there

If you smell gas (rotten eggs) what should you do?

- a.) Find out where it is coming from
- b.) Tell an adult and leave the area
- c.) Wait to see if it goes away